Echo of Vice-President's rejection of impeachment motion against Chief Justice of India

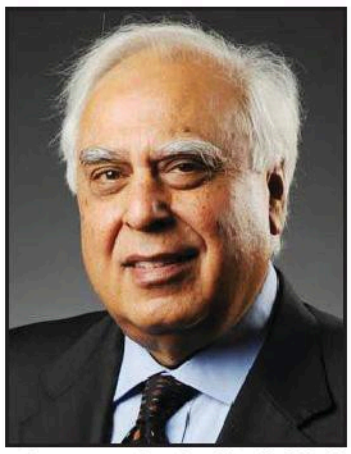
Congress withdraws petition in SC

New Delhi, May 8- Congress MPs, led by Senior Supreme Court advocate and Congress leader Kapil Sibal, this morning withdrew their petition from Supreme Court (SC) challenging Vice-President and Rajya Sabha Chairman Venkaiah Naidu's decision rejecting the notice of removal motion against Chief Justice of India Dipak Misra.

They withdrew the petition after the Court refused to provide them a copy of the order on formation of the Bench to hear the plea. The MPs had questioned the listing of their petition before a five-Judge Constitution Bench soon after they filed it yesterday.

The petition was filed by two Congress Rajya Sabha MPs — Pratap Singh Bajwa from Punjab and Amee Harshadray Yajnik from Gujarat — challenging the Vice-President's decision to nix the bid to impeach the Chief Justice. A five-Judge Bench of Justices A.K. Sikri, S.A. Bobde, N.V. Ramana, Arun K. Mishra and Adarsh K. Goel dismissed the petition as withdrawn.

Chief Justice Dipak Misra



Congress leader Kapil Sibal

It is not clear who formed the Bench — Misra, being the Chief Justice and Master of the Roster, decides which cases are heard by which Judges. In this case, however, the petition directly involves the Chief Justice himself. None of the five senior-most Judges of the SC are on the Constitution Bench. Four of them had made allegations against Misra in a press conference in January. Naturally there is conflict of interest here.

"Never before has a petition been referred to a five-Judge Bench immediately on filing and by an administrative order," Kapil Sibal, appearing for the petitioners, said. "If Your Lordships say that we may not challenge the order, then this order shall be the only order without a challenge in the history of the Constitution."

Sibal's appearance for the two Congress MPs was objected by two advocates, R.P. Luthra and Ashwini Upadhyay, who said the Bar Council of India prohibits those advocate-politicians who have signed the notice of removal motion from arguing the same case.

Cauvery water issue

Security tightened at KRS reservoir

Mysuru, May 8 (RK&KS)- Following the case pertaining to sharing of Cauvery River water with Tamil Nadu scheduled to come up for hearing at Supreme Court today and farmers threatening to storm KRS reservoir, additional security has been provided at the reservoir to prevent any untoward incidents.

The Karnataka Government had yesterday filed an affidavit before the Apex Court, claiming that they had released more water from Cauvery River to Tamil Nadu than what was allotted to it while settling the dispute.

As a precautionary measure, personnel of Para-Military Force, KSRP, DAR Police, along with Srirangapatna and KRS Police, have been deployed at the South and North Gate of the dam and near Cauvery statue in KRS today.

To prevent people from entering the dam from North Bank which connects Mandya Road, additional force has been deployed and the Police have erected barricades at vantage points.

Srirangapatna Circle Inspector Ravindra is leading the security at KRS.

Undoing of urbanites

Historians have traced the approximate dateline for the birth of a few cities around the world, including some in the country. The birth of Bengaluru, having been rechristened recently from its globally recognised name of Bangalore and attributed to Magadi ruler Kempegowda, enjoying a five-plus-century vintage is being bandied about by speakers on specific occasions, in an attempt to earn a veiled pride. Not much attention has been bestowed by those speakers to Mysore as a city, also rechristened as Mysuru, except dubbing its past residents as people with a laid-back attitude in daily life. Now, turning to the case of India's villages, no historian seems to have recorded the dateline for the birth of any village across the country, the number of villages being counted at about 6 lakh. Villages getting deserted nowadays, as reported occasionally, is sure to result in the birth of more cities, not to forget more residents in the existing ones.

The actual death of villages is a non-issue both in public circles and in the government. The pace of cities getting cluttered, creating the all-too-familiar chaotic scene, not likely to abate even in dreams, can witness the virtual death of the cities in foreseeable future. Bengalureans are already talking about such an eventuality for their beloved metropolis.

The longing for moving out of urban space to a rural setting by those unable to keep pace with the fast-changing lifestyle in their respective cities finds them in a neither-here-nor-there mental state. They are also lost in thoughts of what future holds for their offsprings on different counts, including health, livelihood, social scene, pressure on essentials of daily life, cost of living, suffocating atmosphere caused by polluted air, relationships, criminal acts, safety of women and children, to name the obvious shape of things to come. Who is to be held responsible for this human debacle— individuals, collective citizens, administration? Whoever it may be, every urban resident takes the hit.

A study carried out by research in Germany and the US, published recently in the proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, has led to the inference that rural environments during the years of growing children is beneficial in terms of reducing risk of set back in health in later life and also increasing stress-resilient immune systems, essential for healthy living. The urbanites everywhere are the losers in the bargain.

Territory atop electric pole

Colorado: A woman has captured a video of two bobcats fighting over territory on the top of an electric pole in Colorado.

The two wild felines were dueling with their teeth and claws near the top of an electric pole when the woman spotted them and began videographing.

The bobcats were heard growling at one another from a distance. The two animals jostled for position on the pole until one claimed the high ground and the other scales down to the ground.

Man eats 30,000th Big Mac burger

Wisconsin: A Guinness World Record holder for eating the most Big Macs burgers added to his milestone by eating his 30,000th of McDonald's signature burger.

64-year-old Don Gorske, a retired prison guard from Wisconsin, ate his 30,000th Big Mac at his local McDonald's in Fond du Lac, Wis. Gorske said that he has been eating Big Macs everyday since 1972 and broke the word record in 2016 when he ate his 28,788th burger.

Gorske said there have been only eight days where he hasn't eaten a Big Mac since 1972 and his mission hasn't had any ill effects on his health.

"I'm healthy as a horse. I weigh 190 pounds, and my cholesterol is 165," he said. "I'm better than normal."

According to the McDonald's website, one Big Mac contains 540 calories, 28 grams of fat, 46 grams of carbohydrates and 25 grams of protein.

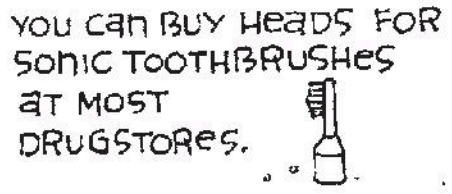
How often should I change toothbrushes?



A toothbrush should be changed every three months. After continued use, the tips of the bristles become frayed and lose some of their ability to remove plaque from the teeth. Buy soft toothbrushes. They bend more easily and can move across the round surface of the tooth more easily.

Curb menace of rotating LED headlights

Sir,

Of late, certain motorists are using a particular type of headlight in their two-wheelers, particularly bikes, which seems like the bulb is rotating and is causing confusion to the motorists coming from opposite direction.

The colour, the rotation/twist are really causing hindrance to the drivers of the vehicles from opposite side. Before this new menace spreads, I request the authorities concerned to put an end to this and avoid any possible mishaps that may occur due to this.

JD(S) Supremo holds Road Show for Prof. K.S. Rangappa in Chamaraja

Mysuru, May 8 (SBD&DM)- JD(S) supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda yesterday held Road Shows in different parts of Chamaraja constituency to drum up support for the party candidate Prof. K.S. Rangappa.

Deve Gowda commenced his mega Road Show from Subramanyeshwara Temple in Hebbal, campaigned in M.G. Koppal, Abhishek Circle, Surya Bakery, Kumbarakoppal, Tollgate, Brindavan Extension, Metagalli, B.M. Srinagar, KRS Road and Paduvarahalli and sought votes for Prof. Rangappa.

Thousands of party workers including youths on two-wheelers took part in the former PM's mega Road Show, as Deve Gowda along with candidate Prof. K.S. Rangappa and other party leaders stood atop an open campaign vehicle, appealing the electorate to vote for the party.

JD(S) supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda addressing the gathering during the Road Show at Chamaraja constituency yesterday. Party candidate Prof. K.S. Rangappa is also seen.

Former Mayors R. Lingappa and M.J. Ravi Kumar, JD(S) City President K.T. Cheluvegowda, Corporator Shivanna, leader Prema Shankaregowda and others were present.

JD(S) promises 100% loan waiver to farmers

Free power and 30 kg rice to BPL families; Pension for widows, senior citizens & differently-abled are among party's poll promises

Bengaluru, May 8 (KMS& BCT)- The JD(S), touted as a potential kingmaker in the Karnataka elections, released its manifesto yesterday. The party, headed by former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda, has promised 100% loan waivers to farmers within 24 hours if elected to power. The loan waiver will include all agricultural loans including crop loans, horticulture loans, and medium-term loans availed by the farmers. Other than loan waivers, farmers will get free seeds and fertilisers.

In its 28-page people's manifesto for development of 20 broadly divided sectors, JD(S) has promised a slew of measures to help the poor, including free power and 30 kg rice to BPL families. Among the other sops promised, the party said that pregnant women, differently-abled people, senior citizens and widows would be given pension.

A pregnant mother will be provided with an assistance of Rs.6,000 per month for three months before delivery and three months after delivery.

In furthering the cause of "women's empowerment", JD(S) in its manifesto said, "Women constitute 50% of voting population. But, their participation, very often is not even 50% in the elections to the Legislative Assembly. For every woman who contributes a vote in the Assembly election, JD(S) would like to provide a one-time award of 'Democracy Support Incentive' of Rs.2,000."

Power generation, skill development, promoting Kannada and Housing Schemes also find mention in the JD(S) manifesto. The party stated that it will introduce "Spoken Kannada" and "Spoken English" in all Government Schools.

"We will revise our education system to accommodate the principles of 'Naya Taleem' (new skill) education system propounded by Mahatma Gandhi. Skill, hobby, talent identification from middle school level will begin and continues till graduation and will be recognised as part of merit," JD(S) said.

Emphasising on skill development, the party said, "We will introduce skill development as a main stream of education from 8th grade onwards. All children study the same syllabus up to 7th grade. From 7th grade children can diversify to skill development schools or to formal schools. Both streams will ensure growth of the knowledge of the student."

SECULAR CREDENTIALS

The party said there is a need to re-establish secular credentials in the State. "In the last 10 years, secular credentials have been weakened. One party is propagating Hindutva majoritarian theory without understating inclusiveness," says the manifesto. Interestingly, the party has not named the BJP while speaking about the Hindutva narrative.

However, criticising the Congress for promoting Ahinda for vote bank politics, it has said the party has neglected all other communities. The Congress is also responsible for dividing Lingayats on religious tag issues and it looks like political killings in Bengaluru are common and Congress Government has failed to take any action.

Govt. not possible without JD(S)

Chikkamagaluru, May 8- In a departure from the earlier stand that any post-poll alliance was a strict no, former CM and JD(S) State President H.D. Kumaraswamy yesterday said the next government cannot be formed without JD(S) and his party would "speak" to those parties that will implement schemes and programmes in its manifesto.

However, he was quick to add: "We are not waiting at the doors of either the BJP or Congress. We will reach 113 (simple majority). Based on the same calculations, I'm undertaking campaigns in the State... All I'm saying is that based on the survey report, Government cannot be formed without the JD(S). However, if circumstances force (for a post-poll alliance), in the interest of the State, we will speak to parties that will implement our programmes."

Incidentally, the former CM, who in the past ruled out any alliance, spoke about such a possibility for the first time in Chikkamagaluru on Sunday. Till then, both Kumaraswamy and his father H.D. Deve Gowda had insisted that the JD(S) will sit in the Opposition if they fall short of majority.

Kumaraswamy was, however, evasive on whether the party would give outside support in a post-poll alliance.

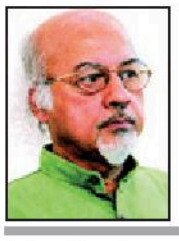
Vote for the future of India



Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

In Karnataka, though, opportunistic politics has a better chance because H.D. Deve Gowda's JD(S) is in the buy-and-sell market. There isn't a hope in hell for the JD(S) to get a majority on its own. But the few seats it wins can make a difference if the Congress and BJP scores are close. One thing that is certain about JD(S) is that it will embrace anybody for power.

Never was a Karnataka election more important to India than this one. Never was a Karnataka election more ruthlessly fought than this one. All bets are off. All masks are off. All decencies associated with democracy are out. The one and only objective is: Win by hook or by crook, mostly by crook because that's easier.

Such is the viciousness of the fight that victory can become defeat and vice versa. The Congress, for example, may get more votes than others, yet the BJP may form the government. Two factors support this possibility. First, the BJP is in power in Delhi and has no qualms about using that power to its partisan advantage. Income Tax raids meant to scare opponents have already taken place and the CBI has progressively closed its cases against the famously infamous Reddy brothers, the principal support base for the BJP's finances and muscle power in the State. Referring to the Reddys' mining business, Lok Ayukta Santosh Hegde said that exports took place although "there was no mining permit, no transportation permit, no export permit." And now, no case.

The second factor that can make a mockery of the election is the phenomenon of also-ran parties in India; they cannot get anywhere near power on their own, but can tilt the balance in a tight contest. The most notorious example of this one-man subterfuge is the Kerala Congress, a small outfit with a small Christian following. Its patriarch, K.M. Mani, played the two-timing game so cleverly that he remained a Cabinet Minister in changing permutations and combinations.

A cheaper version of the K.M. Mani brand of opportunism was devised, also in Kerala, by toddy king turned politician Vellapally Natesan. He projected his son Tushar as the great hope of tomorrow. This completely unknown man formed an alliance with the BJP and floated rumours that he was going to be a Rajya Sabha MP, or a Cabinet Minister, or Chairman of this Corporation or that. The man's hunger for a highfalutin position was pathetic to watch, especially since Amit Shah just kept him waiting, despite Papa Natesan's warnings.

In Karnataka, though, opportunistic politics has a better chance because H.D. Deve Gowda's JD(S) is in the buy-and-sell market. There isn't a hope in hell for the JD(S) to get a majority on its own. But the few seats it wins can make a difference if the Congress and BJP scores are close. One thing that is certain about JD(S) is that it will embrace anybody for power. Don't believe Deve Gowda's threat to disown his son Kumaraswamy if any tie-up with the BJP took place. He said similar things in 2006, yet Kumaraswamy tied up with the BJP and ascended the throne. Father was delighted.

If anything is certain about this election, it is that the Gowdas will keep all option open till the final hour. That's because H.D. Deve Gowda is the greatest dynastic politician in India, well above the Gandhis. The balance sheet of his reign as Karnataka's Chief Minister and India's first accidental Prime Minister had nothing to show for it — except for the light it shone on H.D. Kumaraswamy, H.D. Revanna, H.D. Ramesh, H.D. Anasuya, H.D. Shailaja, H.D. Balakrishna Gowda, some H.D. wives and children. Beyond two sons, two grandsons are also being groomed. What we see now is a meeting of the cynical with the crafty. The Gowda chief knows that the BJP is so desperate for power that it will agree to make Kumaraswamy Chief Minister. The BJP knows that Gowdas are so desperate for power that they will accept its diktats. Watch out for the ultimate exercise in expediency. The only saving grace is that if the Gowda ambition becomes too self-centred, a section of the JD(S) may revolt.

Meanwhile, the take-aways of this election are finding their way into the history books. In Karnataka, unlike in other States, the BJP faces a strong opponent. The Congress has an array of time-tested leaders, while Siddharamaiah, stronger and more assertive of late, pits himself against Modi with aplomb. Example: When Modi mocked him for his 2+1 formula (contesting from two seats with son contesting from another), Siddharamaiah retorted by referring to (a) Modi contesting from Vadodra and Varanasi and (b) Modi's own 2+1 formula (two Reddys and one Yeddy).

Memorable, too, was the Hindutva extremist's shout from coastal Karnataka: "This election is not about water and roads; it is about Hindus and Muslims." Sam Pitroda brought in sobriety with the comment, "This election is not about Karnataka; it is about the future of India." Amen.

50 YEARS OF KANNAN DIAGNOSTIC CENTRE, MYSURU

"Cent per cent error-free Lab does not exist anywhere," says Pathologist Dr. K. Lakshman

By N. Niranjan Nikam

*THE PIONEER: Dr. N. Kannan flanked by his sons Dr. K. Lakshman (right) and Dr. K. Praveen Kumar.

Mine is not a hotel that I can give statistics as to how many patients come, as some people come here without telling their wives for tests. And I also have such a bad memory, unlike my father, Dr. N. Kannan, who even today at 82 has a sharp memory, that in an absurd way, I find my bad memory is a boon. Because if somebody has done something bad for me and he comes back a few days later, I will have forgotten about it and moved on," said Dr. K. Lakshman, sitting in the air-conditioned Kannan Diagnostic Centre, Mysuru, which is celebrating its Golden Jubilee (May 5, 1968 to May 5, 2018), even as he signs the test reports and keeps peeping into the microscope.

After he passed out of Mysore Medical College (MMC) in 1988 and did his MD in Pathology from Kasturba Medical College in 1992, Dr. Lakshman returned to join his father in the Lab. "I had done very well in my MD and passed out. But when I came and joined my father, I realised I practically knew nothing. It was just bare bones. I learnt 90 per cent of the practical aspects from my dad, who himself was a teacher," he said.

Many of his colleagues had asked him to go and learn the ropes from somewhere else. "When I already had a ready-made teacher and with immense practical experience, I realised that it was better to stick here and learn the ropes under the guidance of my father than under somebody else," he said.

Two main points that stand out in my life that I learnt from my father — the first one was his sense of justice of what is right is right and he has never spared me and has taken me to task in front of the patients, if I have done something wrong. The same rule applied to all, including my brother, which is why when he speaks we listen. And secondly there is no question of compromise and you have to work hard.

"Even if there is a smallest mistake, he wanted us to feel bad and learn from it and not brush it off. He would feel bad for a week and I initially for a day, but caught up and the mistake kept playing in my mind," he said and added "Perfection is my father's middle name."

For instance, a simple thing like TB stain, he used to prepare it himself until it is correct. However, the knowledge of correctness comes from experience. Both my brother Dr. Praveen Kumar and I have imbibed this quality of him in us. "If things are not okay, they are not okay, there is no compromise, just throw it, the question of adjustment does not arise at all," he said.

Why is Kannan Diagnostic Centre the most sought after by doctors and patients even after 50 years? The answer that Dr. Lakshman gives, explains it, "When a person says my Lab is 100 per cent error-free, he is lying. Such a Lab does not exist; it has never existed and will never exist. Knowledge of errors and minimising it by hard work and maintaining constant presence in the Lab is the only way to minimise errors. It is an ongoing process."

"Everyday we have to check the machines for the accuracy, check the workings of our staff and our own working and we have no choice in this. How we check our own working is by reviewing slides and finding out if we have we come to the same conclusion. These are all the things in quality control. Only then we can say it is an accurate Lab. The word accurate Lab means you are right most of the time," said Dr. Lakshman.

According to Dr. Lakshman, in the beginning almost everything was done manually as equipment suppliers were few and service of it was non-existent in a place like Mysuru even when he joined his father in the 1990s. Slowly, they started upgrading. Dr. Kannan used to write all the reports by hand in spite of his arthritis problem.

"I realised the problem and the first thing I did was buy a computer and put a typist to type out reports and the accuracy improved. Besides, the reports were stored in the computer," he said and recalled, "It was my good friends Ranjith Sanath, Kamala Prabhushankar and Eshwar who wrote the first software programme tailor-made for my Lab. They put in a lot of effort and made my efforts at computerisation easy."

"I bought my first computer for Rs. 80,000 and today with all networking and sophistication, we have firewalls. I feel that all the hard work has paid off," he said and added "Then we started investing in bigger instruments to do blood sugar testing, thyroid hormone testing by RIA (Radio Immuno Assay) for which we needed permission from Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, Mumbai. Then we started investing in other instruments followed by histopathology, the cancer study of tissues and then the Lab was modernised.

Journalist manhandled, illegally confined by Minister Sait's men

Case booked against 12 persons at Nazarbad Police Station

Mysuru, May 8- Journalist Shivendra Urs, a stringer with The Times of India, Mysuru, was manhandled and illegally confined, allegedly by the supporters of Karnataka's Primary and Secondary Education Minister Tanveer Sait, when he was covering the Minister's election campaign at Gayathripuram, under Narasimharaja Assembly segment in city yesterday morning.

Shivendra Urs

In a complaint to the Police and Karnataka Chief Electoral Officer Sanjiv Kumar, Urs alleged that he was heckled, intimidated and confined in a room for 20 minutes by Sait's supporters, when he was on duty in Narasimharaja.

In his complaint, Shivendra Urs said around 10.45 am yesterday, a group of Sait's supporters led by one Shivalingappa manhandled and confined him in a home in Gayathripuram First Stage, and threatened him with dire consequences. He said that his scribbling pad was snatched, pen was grabbed and three of his supporters who were part of the Minister's entourage, held his hand and shoulder strongly, preventing his movement.

Later, they dragged him to a house from the spot where Sait was canvassing. "The incident has left me shattered and I have developed a fear of facing threats from them," he said in his complaint. Urs said the supporters literally obstructed him from carrying out his duty as a journalist. Sait's aides heckled him and asked him why he was reporting about the campaign.

"The supporters threatened me and dared me to leave the area. When I made an attempt to leave the spot fearing for my safety, they dragged me, heckled me, photographed me and illegally confined me in a house and insisted that I talk to Sait. He came and questioned me about an article on SDPI candidate. He gave me a lecture about journalism," Urs said.

Acting on the complaint, Chief Electoral Officer Sanjiv Kumar said in Bengaluru, they have taken up an inquiry and appropriate action will be taken against those responsible for keeping the journalist in illegal confinement.

The Nazarbad Police have filed a case against the Minister, Shivalingappa and 10 other supporters under IPC sections 341 (wrongful restraint), 323 (voluntarily causing hurt) and 506 (criminal intimidation).

Journalists' Association condemns

Meanwhile, the Mysuru District Journalists' Association (MDJA) condemned the attack on Urs and demanded immediate action against those responsible for the crime. To condemn the attack, the Association has called for a protest in front of Gandhi's bust, near the District Court Complex today.

Sait apologises for attack

Minister Tanveer Sait has apologised for the attack on journalist. In a press release, Sait has said that he was campaigning in Ward 62 and Shivendra Urs had come to cover the political activities.

Tanveer Sait

"Since the last two days, certain vested interests have been indulging in my character assassination by glorifying small incidents in various media. As a result, one of my party workers, who did not know Shivendra, saw him scribbling notes on a writing pad and questioned him who he was and asked for his identity card," Sait has stated.

"It has come to my notice that in the absence of an ID card, the party workers did not behave properly with the journalist. Later, I asked the party worker to apologise to the journalist and I personally apologised too," Sait said and added that he has asked all his party workers to behave well.

"I publicly apologise for the incident," the Minister said.

Swaraj India National President Yogendra Yadav in city

'Heaping personal accusations during poll campaign is a demeaning culture'

Swaraj India National President Yogendra Yadav is seen interacting with media persons in city this morning as MDJA President C.K. Mahendra looks on.

Mysuru, May 8 (RKB&US)- "Heaping personal accusations by political leaders during election campaign is a demeaning culture which should be curtailed," asserted Swaraj India National President Yogendra Yadav.

He was participating in an interaction with the Press organised by Mysuru District Journalists' Association (MDJA) at its premises here this morning.

Yadav contended that the Indian Parliament today has no real Opposition party especially when the country is plagued by burning issues.

He regretted that all political leaders are just involved in mud-slinging on each other during election rallies without divulging any concrete feasible plan to develop the country.

Continuing, Yadav said that Swaraj India had released the election manifesto focussing on conservation of water, eradication of suicide of farmers by creation of a drought-free State, solution for unemployment, evolution of a corruption-free governance, providing quality education, good primary and secondary health service and coming out with a zero communalism society which in short could be called a seven-point programme.

Referring to the long-drawn Cauvery River issue, Yadav regretted that everyone was focussing on sharing of river water instead of utilisation factors.

MDJA President C.K. Mahendra, General Secretary K.J. Lokesh Babu and others were present.

Mysuru district gets new Additional SP

Mysuru, May 8 (RK&DM)- Senior Police Officer M.A. Aiyappa took charge as the new Additional Superintendent of Police (ASP) of Mysuru district here yesterday.

M.A. Aiyappa

A native of Gonikoppa in Virajpet taluk of Kodagu district, Mukkatira A. Aiyappa replaces N. Rudramuni, who has been posted to the DG&IGP's office at Bengaluru.

Aiyappa, an ex-serviceman, had served the Indian Army as a Short Service Commissioned Officer for seven years before joining the State Police force as Dy.SP in 2012. After his appointment, he had served at Tumakuru, Bhatkal and a few other places and also in the State Intelligence, Bengaluru.

Prior to his appointment as Mysuru ASP, he was serving as Chief Vigilance Officer of Karnataka Power Corporation Limited (KPCL) in Bengaluru.

Three persons including woman arrested for looting beauty parlour

Mysuru, May 8 (KS)- The City Crime Branch (CCB) Police on May 6, have arrested three persons including a woman on charges of barging into a beauty parlour on May 1 and making away with a gold chain and the cash purse of the beauty parlour owner.

The arrested have been identified as 29-year-old Arun and 25-year-old Rangaswamy of Gayathripuram and 29-year-old Pavithra of Belavatta in city.

The incident took place at Rishika Beauty Parlour on Maharshi School Road in Vidyaranyapuram Police limits. One of the accused Pavithra, who is known to the parlour owner, came to the parlour, found out that the owner was alone and informed the same to her accomplices Arun and Rangaswamy, who then barged into the beauty parlour, kicked the chair on which the owner was sitting to make her fall down, snatched her gold chain and the cash purse and fled in an autorickshaw, which was waiting outside.

Following the incident, the owner of the beauty parlour had lodged a complaint with Vidyaranyapuram Police which was transferred to the City Crime Branch. The CCB Police, who took up the case, arrested the three accused on May 6 and based on the information provided by the accused, the CCB Police recovered the gold chain weighing about 50 grams and worth about Rs.1.5 lakh besides recovering Rs.1,530 cash from them. The Police have also seized the autorickshaw used for the crime.

DCP Mahaninga B. Nandaganvi and CCB ACP B.R. Lingappa supervised CCB Inspectors Shivaswamy and Shivaprakash, ASIs Chandregowda and Alexander and staff Chikkanna, Ramaswamy, Lakshmikanth, Chamundamma and others in the nabbing and recovery operation.

FORGERY CASE

One year imprisonment for ex-Mayor Narasimha Iyengar

Mysuru, May 8 (MTY&KS)- The First Chief Judicial Magistrate (CJM) Court in city has sentenced former Mayor and Advocate R.G. Narasimha Iyengar to one year simple imprisonment and imposed a fine of Rs.10,000 in a forgery case.

Iyengar, who was the advocate for complainant M.B. Parvathi (Tiny Bidappa), had filed a case against Allahabad Bank in 1993 at the Consumer Court for an unexplained withdrawal of money towards loan account. The Court, after hearing the case in 2006, had given the judgement in favour of Parvathi and had ordered the Bank to give two cheques for Rs. 84,600 and Rs.500 respectively to the Court.

In the meantime, Iyengar forged the signature of Parvathi and had transferred the amount to his account following which Parvathi had filed a complaint in 2008. Following a Police complaint, the cheques and other related documents were sent to Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) which in its report dated July 1, 2009 had stated that signature and writing behind the cheque were forged. Based on the FSL report, the Police had submitted a charge-sheet against Iyengar.

The First CJM Court, which took up the hearing yesterday morning, convicted Advocate Iyengar. Judge Yashwanth Kumar, who held the Advocate guilty of the crime, sentenced him to one year simple imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 10,000 and an additional two months imprisonment if he fails to pay the fine.

Senior Assistant Public Prosecutor K.M.C. Shivashankaramurthy argued for the Government.

50 years of Kannan Diagnostic Centre

"I started bar coding in which the patient's bar code is stuck on their Lab tubes which in turn avoids all errors of labelling. However, we have to type the report and that led to transcriptional or typing errors. To avoid this we did interfacing in which, when the tube is run in the machine, it gives the result. Here, the bar code that is stuck to the tube, communicates to the server and asks what tests have to be done, does the test and sends back the report to the computer. Hence, you don't need to type. This is very important for instance during Dengue outbreak when there is huge number of platelet counts. Imagine typing 19,000 for 1,90,000. Here this does not occur. Interfacing brought our headaches to a minimum. So we could expand to newer tests," Dr. Lakshman said.

Asked about how he got the patients as he and his brother have followed the principles of 'No Commission,' he said, "Most doctors really work hard to save their patients and when it comes to nitty-gritty, they themselves say, go to Kannan Lab for tests. Any Lab can still run without commission. And also the top doctors are very concerned about their patients. Finally, they need to give proper treatment and they are not going to compromise. I see even Post-Graduate students in Cheluvamba and K.R. Hospital giving money for the patients and sending them to me for tests. Then they call and tell that the patient is poor, can you do it free and I have helped more than 1,000 such patients. They do not want any commission. These are the examples which show the humanity that doctors have."

"I have been here for 21 years. We had only the Lab but then we added the Radiology and Ultrasound division which includes scanning, X-ray, Echo, TMT and we increased diagnostics. My field basically is foetal medicine, which is pregnancy scans, as that is my interest and that is the reason why I have not ventured into CT and MRI," said Radiologist Dr. K. Praveen Kumar, taking a little time off from doing the scanning of the patients.

Asked what the challenges were in foetal medicine, he said, "The patient's age is increasing and that is the reason why it is more demanding. I am the only one involved in radiology here and we get more patients because of referrals and not because of commissions. There may be our father's name but we have to keep it up by following his footsteps and his ethics. Ultimately, when you go home you have to have a good night's sleep."

"People still wonder how we are able to run the Lab without commissions. We do not look at returns and if look at it then we will be like any other Lab," said Dr. Praveen Kumar echoing his father and brother.

Dr. Lakshman said it is only because he believes in such doctors that he is in the profession and the moment he does not believe, there was no point in continuing in his profession. And all of them first had the patient's interest at heart.

Another reason why we are trusted is, "I draw almost 95 per cent of the blood samples, which my father did also in his heydays and I personally see the slides, whether it is blood or urine. Besides, I attend to patients myself and clear their doubts," said Dr. Lakshman, even as he answered a patient, who had just then come with the report and told him not to worry as it showed a good result.

Echo of Writ Petition in High Court over gun license exemption to Kodavas

Kodava Samajas gear up for legal battle

Madikeri, May 8- The Writ Petition questioning the exemption to Kodavas and Jamma land holders in Kodagu district from obtaining a license to possess firearms under Section 3 and 4 of the Indian Arms Act, 1959, that was filed before the Karnataka High Court has gained attention in Kodagu and representatives of Kodava Samajas are preparing for a legal battle.

The petitioner, Captain (Rtd) Yaladalu K. Chethan, son of Yaladalu D. Keshavananda has filed a Writ Petition in the High Court on Jan. 8, 2018 and a Bench comprising Chief Justice Dinesh Maheshwari and Justice P.S. Dinesh Kumar has posted the hearing after the summer vacation.

The special privilege to own firearms without license was granted to the Kodavas by the British in recognition of their martial traditions. This was continued after independence by a notification issued by the Union Government in 1963 which exempted "every person of (the) Coorg race and every Jamma land tenure holder in Coorg" from the Indian Arms Act.

In his petition, (WP No. 1386/2018), Chethan, a resident of R.T. Nagar in Bengaluru, claimed that the continuation of the exemption, granted to some class of persons by the British government in pre-Independent India in furtherance of their divide-and-rule policy, was unconstitutional, as it was based on irrational, fictitious and discriminatory grounds, such as race and ancestral land tenure.

He said that the exemption granted to Jamma holders and for the members of Kodava race under Section 3 and 4 of Indian Arms Act differentiates between communities living in a society and promotes disharmony.

Reacting on the Writ Petition, President of Akhila Kodava Samaja Mathanda Monnappa told Star of Mysore yesterday that they were preparing for the legal battle and the Federation of Kodava Samajas has given powers to Bengaluru Kodava Samaja to take on the issue in the High Court.

On its part, the Bengaluru Kodava Samaja has entrusted the responsibility to senior advocate M.M. Nanaiah and his team. "We have also spoken to advocate Sajjan Poovaiah and former Minister M.C. Nanaiah and they have assured us of all legal help and assistance. Senior Advocate A.K. Subbaiah has collected several documents regarding the gun rights of Kodavas and they will be produced before the High Court for consideration," Monnappa said.

Appealing to the Kodava community members not to air their views on social media platforms as the matter is sub-judice, Monnappa said that they will take the issue to the logical end and preserve the rights granted to Kodavas by the British.

Speaking on the issue, President of Kodagu Gowda Samaja Okkoota Soorthale R. Somanna has clarified that the Writ Petition filed in the High Court by Yaladalu K. Chethan has nothing to do with the Gowda Samaja and Gowda Samaja Okkoota.

"To resolve the issue without complications, on behalf of the Gowdas, we spoke to Chethan. But we did not get a positive response from him. Our contention is that the exemption provided to "Kodavas by race" must be provided to all original inhabitants in Kodagu. We are not demanding the scrapping of the special privilege granted to Kodavas under the Arms Act," he said.

EDITOR'S NOTE

For Kodavas, gun is not only for protection from wild animals in those past early centuries but also an important weapon of worship in their religious practice and family life. Respecting these sentiments, Britishers merely legalised it under the Arms Act. Earlier, this exception under the Arms Act extended to other communities holding lands under a tenure known as "Jamma", a privileged land.

However, after "Jamma" was abolished in 2011 or so during the days of K.G. Bopaiah, then BJP Speaker of the Assembly, Jamma holders are naturally disqualified to enjoy the exemption under the Arms Act and only Kodavas by race are enabled to enjoy this privilege.

Congress withdraws petition

But the Apex Court said it was for Sibal to decide whether to argue or not. Indeed the Court seemed too condescending to Kapil Sibal.

The top court repeatedly asked what purpose it would serve if Sibal was given a copy of the administrative order passed by the CJI that referred the petition to the five-judge Bench. Sibal maintained that only after getting the order would he decide whether to challenge it or accept it. But when the Supreme Court expressed reluctance to part with the administrative order, Sibal then abruptly decided to withdraw the petition.

At a press conference shortly after withdrawing the petition, Sibal listed the reasons why the petition was withdrawn. He expressed unhappiness at not getting a copy of the order passed by the CJI on the five-Judge Bench that was to hear the plea.

"We filed the petition in SC (challenging VP Naidu's dismissal of impeachment motion against CJI) yesterday and it was to be heard today. But we were informed last evening that our petition will be heard by five judges. Who gave these orders? What were the orders?" the Congress leader questioned.

"Who referred the petition to the five-judge Bench? It is our constitutional right to know," he added.

City skaters to represent India in Asian, World Championships

Varsha S. Puranik

Rea Elizabeth

Omkar Yograj

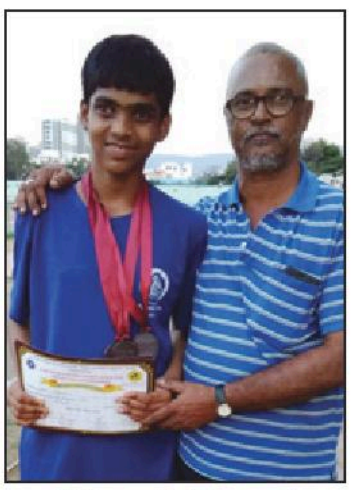
Gurugram, May 8- Skaters from Mysuru — Varsha S. Puranik and Rea Elizabeth Achaiah in the women's section and Omkar Yograj in the men's section — have earned selection to represent India in the World Speed Skating Championships to be held at Netherlands and Asian Speed Skating Championships to be held at South Korea.

The selection trials are being held in Gurugram from May 7 and Varsha Puranik has won the 1st place in the women's section and Rea Elizabeth Achaiah also has earned selection with her performance in the selection trials. Omkar Yograj has won the third place in the selection trials and has earned selection for the Championships.

All the three skaters are being coached by K. Srikantha Rao of Rao Roller Skating Club, Mysuru, who is a Ekalavya Award winner and also Indian coach.

Karnataka State-level Para State Games-2018

City's Abhay fares well



Abhay with his coach M.S. Gopinath.

Mysuru, May 8- Mysuru lad S. Abhay, a mentally-retarded athlete, representing Mysuru district in the Karnataka State-level Para State Games-2018 held at Dharwad recently, won three bronze medals (100m, Shot-Put and Discus-Throw events) in the mentally-retarded category for boys.

He is a 8th standard student at Princely State Montessori School, Siddarthanagar, Mysuru. He is being coached by SAK coach M.S. Gopinath at Chamundi Vihar Stadium for the last four years.

In Shot-Put, he threw a distance of 7.00m (4ks ball), in Discus, he threw a distance of 10mtrs and in 100m event, he had a timing of 18.00s.

He is the son of S.J. Somashekar and R.N. Kavitha, residents of Siddarthanagar here.

New era starts for Australia

Justin Langer taps Tim as ODI Skipper

Canberra, May 8- New Australia coach Justin Langer on Tuesday named Tim Paine as one-day captain for next month's tour of England as they look to open a new era after a damaging ball-tampering scandal.

Langer, who has been entrusted with restoring Australia's battered reputation, was widely expected to select Paine in his first major decision as coach.

The 33-year-old wicketkeeper has already been appointed Australia's Test captain after his predecessor Steve Smith received a 12-month ban for his part in the ball-tampering affair.

The five-match ODI series in England will be the Australian team's first outing since the disastrous South African tour and the players are sure to face intense scrutiny.

Chairman of selectors Trevor Hohns said Cricket Australia had faith in Paine's ability to lead the 15-man squad in England, with Aaron Finch as his vice-captain.

Bowlers shine as SRH beat RCB in an exciting game

Hyderabad, May 8- Table-toppers Sunrisers Hyderabad (SRH) produced yet another spirited bowling effort after skipper Kane Williamson's crucial half-century to beat Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) by five runs and virtually assure themselves a place in the play-offs of the Indian Premier League on Monday night. Sunrisers not only registered their fifth consecutive win of the tournament but also defended yet another low total riding on the performance of their excellent bowling unit.

Earlier, skipper Kane Williamson struck a vital half-century before pace duo of Mohammed Siraj and Tim Southee joined hands to help RCB bundle out Sunrisers for a modest 146. Williamson scored 56 off 39 balls while Shakib made 35 but it was Siraj (3/25) and Southee's (3/30) fiery spell that eventually put brakes on Sunrisers' charge.

Sent into bat, Sunrisers did not have the best of starts as they lost openers Alex Hales (5) and Shikhar Dhawan (13) early. To make matters worse for the hosts, Manish Pandey (5) too didn't last long, handing out a simple catch to skipper Kohli off Yuzvendra Chahal (1/25) in the ninth over.

Thereafter, Sunrisers captain Williamson and Shakib stitched 64 runs off just 50 balls for the fourth wicket to keep the hosts afloat. While Shakib played the second fiddle, Williamson showcased his class striking the balls to all parts of the ground without taking any undue risk.

Kane Williamson was chosen as the 'Player of the Match.'

By virtue of this win, Sunrisers have consolidated their position at the top of the table with 16 points from 10 games.

RCB, on the other hand, are standing on the verge of elimination with just six points from 10 matches. Besides needing to win their remaining four games, RCB's fortune will also depend on the outcome of other matches.

"Development cannot take place unless 'Sidda Rupaiah Sarkar' is voted out"

Union Minister Smriti Irani address BJP rally at Somwarpet

Somwarpet, May 8- Claiming that there can be no development unless 'Sidda Rupaiah Sarkar' (Corrupt Congress Government) is voted out, Union Minister Smriti Irani has said that the Congress Government lacked the will to resolve agrarian and other burning issues.

Speaking at a BJP rally organised here yesterday, Smriti said that the Congress had no idea of development and was only making false claims on achievement.

Accusing the Congress of having little respect for motherland, she alleged that AICC President Rahul Gandhi lacked knowledge of Kannada land and culture.

Claiming that Prime Minister Narendra Modi had taken up a wide range of development works in Amethi, which is represented by Rahul Gandhi, the Union Minister said that it was ridiculous for Rahul Gandhi to seek votes for corrupt Congress Government in Karnataka.

Actress Shurthi, who is State BJP Mahila Morcha General Secretary, said that the BJP was already ruling 21 States in the country and in this backdrop, the Karnataka polls has assumed special significance.

Accusing the Congress of dividing the society on caste and communal lines, she said that BJP workers should work in unity to ensure victory for the party in both Assembly segments of Kodagu-Madikeri and Virajpet.

She also lashed out at the Congress Government for celebrating Tipu Jayanti.

Madikeri BJP candidate Appachu Ranjan, leaders V.M. Vijaya, S.B. Bharath Kumar, J.K. Muthamma, Bharateesh, Abhimanyu Kumar and others were present during the rally.

Deve Gowda dismisses pre-poll surveys

JD(S) Supremo H.D. Deve Gowda addressing a press meet in city this morning as party candidate Prof. K.S. Rangappa looks on.

Mysuru, May 8 (RKB&DM)- Asserting that his party will come to power on its own in the Assembly polls, JD(S) Supremo and former PM H.D. Deve Gowda has said that the JD(S) will take the support of Independent candidates, who are likely to win over a dozen seats, if the party falls just short of the majority mark. Addressing a press meet at a private hotel here this morning, Deve Gowda maintained that the outcome of Karnataka Assembly polls will be a pointer to the 2019 Lok Sabha polls.

Maintaining that the JD(S) would bag almost all the eleven Assembly segments in the district apart from Varuna and K.R. constituencies, where the party does not have a strong base, he said that the JD(S) was getting stronger even in Munbai-Karnataka and Hyderabad-Karnataka regions where the party is considered weak, even as the poll date was drawing closer.

Dismissing pre-poll surveys which predicted around 40 seats for the JD(S), the JD(S) Supremo said that such pre-poll surveys were funded by political parties only to buy public opinion in their favour.

Lashing out at the Congress for making tall claims and false premises, Gowda said the Congress was now concentrating more in North Karnataka as it feared that the JD(S) was making deep inroads into its bastion.

JD(S) Chmaraja candidate Prof. K.S. Rangappa, Kerala JD(S) President Krishnan Kutty, City JD(S) President K.T. Cheluvegowda, leader Rajanna and others were present.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah sends Defamation notice to Prime Minister

Bengaluru, May 8- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has sent notice for defamation to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, BJP National President Amit Shah and State BJP President and former Chief Minister B.S. Yeddyurappa for accusing him of corruption and has demanded a public apology.

Siddharamaiah has accused the top BJP leaders of making "baseless, false and untrue remarks" about him in the campaign for the State election this Saturday. Reports suggest that he has sued the leaders for Rs.100 crore.

"... you are called upon to cease and desist from making such statements forthwith and give an unconditional public apology immediately through electronic, print and social media etc. in which the statements and advertisements have appeared," says the notice.

Siddharamaiah Narendra Modi

PM Modi's jibes like "Sidda-rupaiya government", "10 per cent sarkar (that takes commission)" and "ease of doing murders" have been detailed in the legal notice. The results of voting in Karnataka will be declared on May 15.

Verbal attacks and name-calling has peppered the intense campaign for Karnataka, which is the last major state ruled by the Congress.

On May 1, PM Modi had said at a public meeting in Udupi: "We want to encourage the ease of doing business, they have initiated the culture of ease of doing murder."

Siddharamaiah has also included in his notice allegations revolving around his diamond-studded Hublot watch. The watch has been repeatedly raised by BJP leaders; the Chief Minister claims he was gifted the watch by his friend and he had paid tax for it.

He also claims he declared the source of the watch in the Assembly and handed it over to the Speaker asking that it be treated like an "asset of the State."
